

Lawrence County Learning Center

102 Margaret Street New Castle, PA 16101 724.656.3564

Get The Future You Want!

Are you?

- An Adult seeking to obtain your GED?
- A college student seeking credit and non credit courses?
- An employee looking for training?

Classes Provided By:

- La Roche College
- Penn State Shenango
- Sr. For Safe Driving
- And others

Lifelong Learning of Lawrence County Adult Literacy offers classes Monday through Thursday from 9:00am-12:00. Prepare for all five parts of the GED test and take an official GED Practice Test.

For more information please contact Lifelong Learning at 724-654-1500 Today!

La Roche College – American Literature, Criminal Justice, Counseling Methods

Penn State Shenango – Childcare Certification

Workforce Training - Butler County Community College (Excel Workshop)

The above classes represent a sample of the courses that are offered at the Lawrence County Learning Center

...The possibilities are endless!

For information on the Lawrence County Learning Center and classes please call 724-656-3564

or email orrico@lawrencecounty.com

Get The Future You Want! Use our Facility! Free of Charge!

Our building is approximately 2,500 sq. ft. of multiple classrooms, computer labs and small group rooms located at the Lawrence County Career Link. This space is used for training and continuing education by a diverse group of providers and students.

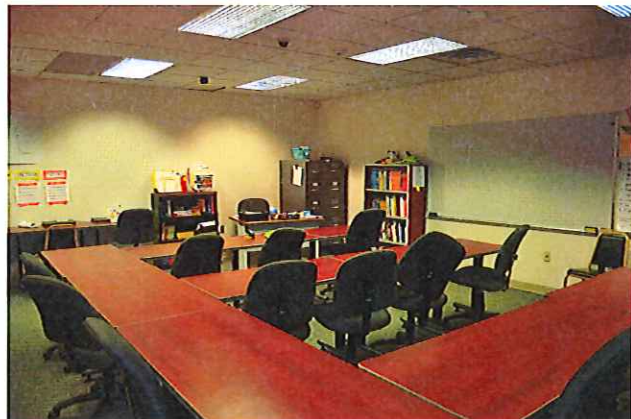

We have a variety of space and rooms available including:

- *Two Large traditional Classrooms that seat 20-24 people
- *Computer Lab with 15 laptop computers
- *Conference Rooms for small groups, tutoring or meetings

Typical Building Availability:

Monday-Friday 8:30-4:00

Evenings are available upon request!

Schedule early to be sure the rooms you need are available!

Call 724-656-3564 or email orrico@lawrencecounty.com for more information, to schedule room use or tour our facility
(cancellation deadline is 48 hours before scheduled use)